

Learning and Development opportunity / Weblink	Brief Description	Type / Mode	Aimed at
REPORTS/GUIDANCE/ DOCUMENTS Domain A Values, Attitudes and Ethical Practice
Inequalities insight report.pdf (ageing-better.org.uk)	Centre for Ageing Better: Health Inequalities report. This review looks at the evidence on the nature of inequalities in later life in England. This review illustrates stark contrasts in people's experiences of later life in terms of health, financial security, and social connections.	Report	Health & Social Care Staff
https://www.ageuk.org.uk/our-impact/programmes/safe-to-be-me/	The Safe to be me resource guide offers practical advice on providing the kind of service in which older lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender (LGBT) people can feel safe to be themselves. This resource is written for anyone working or volunteering in health, social care or the voluntary sector who would like to support older people who are LGBT. It will also be helpful for training providers to ensure courses integrate discussions and scenarios relating to the needs of people who are LGBT.	Guidance	ALL
https://www.bgs.org.uk/resources/end-of-life-care-in-frailty-law-and-ethics	This resource covers the legal and ethical implications of end-of-life care in older people	Clinical Guideline	H&S care staff
https://www.collectivevoice.org.uk/news/reducing-health-inequalities-for-people-living-with-frailty/	Reducing Health Inequalities for People Living with Frailty: Populations experiencing inequalities are more likely to experience premature frailty and those with the greatest need often also have the greatest difficulty in accessing and receiving appropriate care and support. In order to redress this, a new resource from members of the VCSE Health and Wellbeing Alliance sets out practical recommendations and examples of	Guidance	Health and Social Care Staff

Learning and Development opportunity / Weblink	Brief Description	Type / Mode	Aimed at
	how commissioners, service providers and health, care and support staff can successfully overcome barriers to healthcare for people at greater risk of frailty as a result of health inequalities.
Care Act factsheets - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)	Department of Health & Social Care factsheets explaining local authority responsibilities, as outlined in the Care Act (2014)	Guidance	Health & Social Care Staff confidentiality---guidance-for-registrants.pdf (hcpc-uk.org)	Health Care Professions Council: This document provides guidance on some of the issues relating to how health and care professionals handle information about service users. It has been written by the Health Professions Council, but it is also be helpful to employers and other people who want to know professionals should approach issues of confidentiality	Guidance	HCP
https://www.nationalvoices.org.uk/publications/our-publications/im-still-me	This is a report of National Voices' narratives on person-centred coordinated care. This narrative describes the way older people want high quality coordinated care to support them, from their perspective	Guidance	ALL
Overview Decision making and mental capacity Quality standards NICE	NICE guidance: This quality standard covers decision making in people aged 16 and over, using health and social care services who may lack capacity to make their own decisions (now or in the future). It aims to support implementation of the aims and principles of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 and relevant Codes of Practice	Guidance	Health and Social Care Staff
https://www.who.int/initiatives/decade-of-healthy-ageing	WHO guidance: decade of healthy ageing. The United Nations Decade of Healthy Ageing (2021-2030) is a global collaboration, aligned with the last ten years of the Sustainable Development	Guidance	ALL

Learning and Development opportunity / Weblink	Brief Description	Type / Mode	Aimed at
	Goals, that brings together governments, civil society, international agencies, professionals, academia, the media, and the private sector to improve the lives of older people, their families, and the communities in which they live ONLINE LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT RESOURCES
https://portal.e-lfh.org.uk/Component/Details/512444	Assessing mental capacity in older people	E-Learning	ALL
Health Literacy - elearning for healthcare (e-lfh.org.uk)	Promoting health literacy is everyone's responsibility. The programme introduces health literacy, why it is important and the core techniques that can be used to improve health literacy in order to improve how they communicate and check understanding with others.	e-learning	Health & Social Care Staff
Jackie's Story (jackiesstory.co.uk)	Jackie's story: Online resource that is all about people, those who receive advice and support, and those who give it. Jackie's Story takes the user on an 'ageing well' journey through the true-life course of a person called Jackie. Jackie's story can be used as a resource by frontline professionals and managers to demonstrate how best to deliver and plan services to prevent frailty and support older people, families and carers living with frailty	On line resource	ALL
https://myhomelife.org.uk	My Home Life is an organisation that offers advice, research and training to support care delivery within the care home sector. This web page contains information of their services, as well as lots of practical resources that can support care delivery	On-line resource	Care Home Staff

Learning and Development opportunity / Weblink	Brief Description	Type / Mode	Aimed at
Abuse and neglect of vulnerable adults (safeguarding) - NHS (www.nhs.uk)	This NHS guidance provides information on the common types of abuse older adults may experience, how to spot signs of abuse and what to do if you suspect an older person is experiencing abuse	On-line resource	ALL
https://www.personalisedcareinstitute.org.uk/your-learning-options/	The Personalised care institute offers a range of training on subjects relating to personalised care, including care and support planning and shared decision making.	e-learning	Health & Social Care Staff
Care Act: Video introduction (scie.org.uk)	The Care Act (2014) sets out in one place, local authorities' duties in relation to assessing people's needs and their eligibility for publicly funded care and support. This information video gives an overview of what the local authorities responsibilities are and how the Care Act can be used to support individuals to access the support they need	On-line resource	Health & Social Care Staff
Dignity in care SCIE	Social Care Institute for Excellence: Dignity in care means providing care that supports the self-respect of the person, recognising their capacities and ambitions, and does nothing to undermine it. This on-line resource has lots of tips and useful resources including videos to ensure that we always respect and preserve dignity for those who we support and care for	On-line resource	Health & Social Care Staff & Managers
Video: Liberty Protection Safeguards - Looking forwards - for social care SCIE	The Liberty Protection Safeguards (LPS) are due to come into force in 2022 to replace deprivation of liberty (DOL's). The Social Care Institute has produced a short video to encourage staff to consider how LPS will seek to promote practice which aligns with human rights and the core principles and duties of care	On-line resource	ALL

Learning and Development opportunity / Weblink	Brief Description	Type / Mode	Aimed at
Mental Capacity Act (MCA) and DoLS SCIE	The Social Care Institute for Excellence has a raft of useful information on this website relating to applying the Mental Capacity Act and supporting individuals with best interest decision making	On-line resource	Health & Social Care Staff
Whistleblowing: improving organisational practice SCIE	This short video offers an overview on whistleblowing to encourage staff to raise concerns at work in order to improve the quality-of-care delivery	On-line resource
RESEARCH ARTICLES			